Customizable hair mask ‘must-haves’ to suit your mane mood

Modern life travels at 1,000 miles an hour. We are city dwellers, we work hard, we love culture, we are active in sport and fitness, we have busy social lives, we have families...

What if there were a hair beauty routine offering customizable solutions to fit in with your personal lifestyle, according to your own needs? Now there is... Introducing The Davines Circle Chronicles, a line of scalp and hair masks designed to keep up with the rhythm of your life and your impromptu hair and scalp needs.

The Spotlight Circle, The Wake Up Circle, The Renaissance Circle, The Quick Fix Circle and The Purity Circle make up The Circle Chronicles line. Five new masks, different in formula, action, fragrance and colour, all have a common denominator: an immediate cosmetic performance that works with your lifestyle requirements.

Each mask is unique and dedicated to a specific hair and/or scalp issue. However, sometimes we have different needs at the same time. Much as we may need to hydrate one part of our face but mattify, brighten or nourish other parts of our complexion. Our hair too may have different needs; we might want to detoxify our scalp, but protect the ends, or maybe moisturise the length and re-energize the scalp. The Davines Circle Chronicles line offers a quick and efficient multi-masking treatment by applying different masks to address different hair needs, but with the setting time of a single mask.

Formulated in the Davines laboratories with high percentages of natural origin ingredients, such as clays, charcoal and vegetable oils, they are created using 100% renewable energy sources. Silicone-free and without parabens, they contain no artificial colour, the natural origin active ingredients present in each mask are the only source of colour in the formulation.

Super stylish, practical and original packaging is extremely convenient for travelling, the gym or a weekend in the country. Slim line enough to fit in a pocket because they were designed for single-use, for the needs of the moment, choosing each time what is perfect for our hair. The packaging is CO2 neutral, the carbon dioxide used to produce it is offset with projects of reforestation and protection of forests.

The solution to “revive” your hair. For Mission Impossible situations!

The Wake-Up Circle: Sometimes a break is needed. After an intense period, a long trip, or a stressful time, we feel the need to stop, to recharge the batteries. Sometimes we are overwhelmed and forget to take care of ourselves, with the end result of waking up one day and not liking what we see in the mirror. To get back our vitality we need something rejuvenating and energizing: The Wake Up Circle. A violet coloured mask for scalp and hair stressed by “life”, this mask brings tone, volume and helps to regain lost balance. With Rhodiola extract and violet clay, rich in kaolin and aluminium with rebalancing and anti-toxin properties. To get back on the straight and narrow!

Finally, The Purity Circle; When we need to unplug ourselves from frantic daily life for a real detoxing moment. A time to cleanse the body and mind, as well as the scalp and hair. We pay more attention to our body, we eat more healthily and we extend this healthy routine also to beauty. Why not the hair? A purifying mask is what we need to remove scalp impurities caused by atmospheric pollution, especially in the winter or in cities and towns particularly polluted by fine particles and heavy metals. The Purity Circle is enriched with matcha tea, a very well known super food with polyphenols that fight free radicals and 100% natural eco-certified bamboo charcoal with adsorbing properties, which give the product its characteristic black colour. Detoxified and happy! (For multi-masking tips please see next page)
